FOR ARIZONA MINERS.

A Coast Powder Trust and Raise In Price.

Negotiations for the the formation of a powder compact at San Francisco are again very active. It is understood that an agreement has been reached by the Judsen, California and Giant companies to advance the price of powder in Colorado, Arizona and Mon tana 2 cents a pound, and not to enter into any new contracts on the coast for thirty days.

On the basis of the 15,000,000 pounds of high explasives sold on the coast last year, an advance of 2 cents would mean $300,000 in profits to be derived in the proportion of about $200,000 to the California, $125,000 to the Giant and $75,000 to the Judson.
